

“Revenge is my Middle Name”

Characterization

- Characters may be presented, by means of description, through: their actions, words, thoughts, or what other characters say about them.

In the third chapter “Revenge is my Middle Name”, we get the first introduction to Junior’s best friend, Rowdy. Throughout the entire novel, Rowdy plays a major role (both positively and negatively) in Junior’s life. He is a very important and colourful character.

Create a character sketch of Rowdy from the description given in the third chapter. Provide quotations and page numbers for each example.

Thoughts...

Words

What others say about him...

Actions